

The Bridge of Georgia

Lazy Day Literacy Series presents

“Where the Wild Things Are”

WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE

STORY AND PICTURES BY MAURICE SENDAK

March 15, 2013

8:30-2:30

All children ages 4-5th grade

Children bring their own lunch
A portion of spaces reserved for children with special needs

Our Lazy Day Literacy Series focuses on a different piece of children’s literature in each session.

The day will be filled with crafts, music, games and more centered around the selected book.

Activities will insure that our campers remember these pieces of literature for a lifetime.

“Let the wild Rumpus begin!”

Send application and $20 nonrefundable deposit to Po Box 542, Monroe, GA 30655

Balance of $30 due by March 1, 2013. Space is limited and some spaces are reserved for children with special needs.
